

TABLE OF CONTENTS

To access page, click on page number

CHAPTER 1: BASICS	1
Media Time Spent Patterns	3
Daily Hours Spent Per U.S. Adult With Various Entertainment & Information Media	4
How Adult/Male/Female Demographic Segments Allocate Their Daily Time Spent With Nine Media	5
Demographic Appeals	8
Profile Of Heaviest Quintile Usage Groups For Six Major Media By Demographics	9
Median Age Of Average Telecast/Episode Audience By TV Program/Network Type Genres	10
Median Age Of Average Quarter-Hour TV Sports Viewers	11
Average Telecast Adult Viewer Compositions By Demographics For Selected Primetime, Daytime & Syndicated Series	12
Demographic Profile Of Adult Readers Of Selected Magazine Types	15
Demographic Composition Of Adult Population Weekly Reach By Radio Format	17
Profile Of Past Month Adult Visitors To Selected Websites By Demographics	19
Reach Capabilities Of The Five Media And Combinations Of Media	21
Reach Buildup Of Five Media From 1-30 Days	26
Daily, Weekly And Monthly Reach Attainment By Target GRP Levels For Five Media	27
Target Group Reach Buildup For Weeks 1-4 Of New TV Ad Campaign/New TV & Magazine Ad Campaign	28
Adult Reach For Prime TV And Mass Magazine Schedules By Selected Demographics	30
Adult Reach For Late Evening TV And Business Magazine Schedules By Selected Demographics	31
Adult Female Reach For Day TV Soaps And Parenting Magazine Schedules By Selected Demographics	32
Adult Reach For Cable Documentaries And Travel Magazine Schedules By Selected Demographics	33
Timing And Location Of Audiences	34
Average Adult Audiences For Media Vehicles By When Reached	35
Location Of Adult Exposure For Six Media	36
Distribution Of Average Quarter-Hour Listeners By Station Format And Location Of Audience	37
Total Adult/18-34/Upscale Demographic Segments Claiming Exposure To Five Media By Time Of Day/Day Of Week	39
CPM Comparisons	42
Comparisons Of Typical CPMs For Adults/Men/Women By Age And Income For Five Media	45
Page Four-Color CPM Estimates For Adults/Men/Women By Age And H.H. Income By Selected Magazine Genres	48
Five Media CPM Comparisons, Targets: Mass Adult Audience/Young Adults/Women 18+/Upscale Adults	51
CHAPTER 2: QUALITATIVE COMPARISONS	55
Intermedia Comparisons: Dealing With The “Apples Vs. Oranges” Conundrum	57
Media Attentiveness Measurements And Multitasking	63

CONTINUED —>

Average Half-Hour Adult Viewers Rating Themselves As Fully Attentive During Major Network Shows By Daypart/Genre	65
Adult Listeners Claiming Various Levels Of Attentiveness By Station Format	66
Share Of Media Use Time With No Other Concurrent Activity Reported	67
Proportion Of Media Exposure Time Devoted Solely To A Single Medium	68
How Ad Exposure Rates Vary By Medium And Ad Units	70
Estimated Ad Exposure Levels For Seven Media	73
How Many Ads Are We Really Exposed To Per Day?	74
Trends In Average Hours Of Daily Exposure To Five Media Per U.S. Adult	75
Number Of Ad Exposures Per Adult On An Average Daily Basis By Medium	76
Using Ad Campaign Appeals In Media Targeting	77
Relative Indices Of Adults In Buying Style Groupings By Demographics	80
Relative Likelihood Of Adults With Certain Buying Styles To Watch Nationally Aired TV Shows	81
Relative Likelihood Of Adults With Certain Buying Styles To Be Weekly Viewers Of Cable Channels	82
Relative Likelihood Of Adults With Certain Buying Styles To Read Magazines	83
Relative Likelihood Of Adults With Certain Buying Styles To Be Weekly Listeners Of Radio Station Formats	84
Ad Receptivity: An Important Metric For Media Planners To Consider	85
How Adults Rated Ads In Five Media On Three Negative Metrics	89
U.S. Adult Population With Positive And Negative Views Of Ads In Each Medium	90
Profile Of Adults Who Favorably And Unfavorably Rated Ads In Each Medium	91
Relative Indices Of Heavy & Light Media Exposure By Adults With Favorable/Unfavorable Attitudes Towards Advertising In Each Medium	93
Average Ad Receptivity Ratio By Select Demographics For 189 Product/Service Categories	94
Examples Of Products/Services With Highest And Lowest Ad Receptivity	95
Relative Indices Of Ad Receptivity By Demos Within Product User Groups	96
Ad Awareness & Impact: How Do Magazines Compare To TV?	97
Summary Of Three 1960s Ad Recall Studies Comparing TV To Magazines	101
Reader Recall Of Seven Page 4-Color Ads In Parade Magazine	102
Viewer Recall Of 12 Commercials In Primetime TV Shows	103
Summary Of 1990s Scanner Panel Sales Impact Studies Of TV And Magazine Ads	104
Magazines Readers Are More Receptive To Ads Than TV Viewers	105
Percent By Which Selected Publications Exceeded TV Norms In Targeting Product User And Ad Receptive Product Users	107
Radio Versus Television Commercial Impact Measurements	108
How Various Commercial Impact Studies Rated Radio Versus TV Messages	110
Pretesting Company Recall And Impact Norms For TV And Radio Commercials	111
Average Impact Findings For 16 TV And Radio Commercials	112
Intermedia Engagement Metrics From Experian Simmons	113
Mean Engagement Scores For Individual Metrics For Ad-Supported TV Shows	114
Average Media Engagement Rating For TV Shows, Magazines And Websites	115
Engagement Indices For Selected TV Shows, Magazines And Website Genres	116

CONTINUED —>

Products Have Their Own Engagement Signatures	120
Relative Indices Of Ad Attentiveness/Receptivity For Users Of 41 Products/Services	121
Highest And Lowest Scoring Product Category Scores For Six Engagement Metrics	122
Does Telling Your Story In More Than One Medium Enhance Advertising Communication?	123
Relative Indices Of Ad Effectiveness For Various Combinations Of TV, Radio And Newspaper Ads For Five Advertisers	126
Relative Increase In Awareness And Intent-To-Buy Levels For Brands By Media Exposure Combinations	127
Media's Often-Ignored Imagery Transfer Capabilities	128
Is Brand Name Confusion More Of A Problem For TV Than Print Ads?	129
Audience Misidentification Of Brands Presenting A Message	129
Miscomprehension Of TV And Magazine Content By Adults After A Single Exposure	131
How Six Media Compare In One ROI Study	132
Proportion Of Impact Delivered By TV, Print & Online Media For 40 Brands By Brand Metrics	132
Percent Lift By Brand Metrics Among Those Exposed To The Medium	133
CHAPTER 3: MEDIA PLANNING IMPLICATIONS	135
Some Thoughts On Upgrading The Media Planning Function	137
Basic Media Planning Questions	144
Factors That Affect A Medium's Ability To Convey An Ad Message Effectively To The Public	145
Different Methods Used To Measure Advertising Impact	146
Implications Of Ad Recall And Attitude Change Studies	147
Pros & Cons For Each Medium	148